Mingwei Sun

Senior Data Scientist at Constellation

New York, New York, United States

Summary

I'm a Senior Data Scientist at Constellation in New York, where I build data-driven solutions for the advertising and marketing technology industry. My expertise spans multi-agent systems, Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG), and MLOps, on a foundation of statistical analysis, machine learning, and data visualization. Before moving into ad tech, I worked in healthcare data science at Boston Children's Hospital, supporting clinical research with statistical modeling.
